

Real Estate Finance: Theory and Practice, 1996, Terrence M. Clauretje, 0134334752, 9780134334752, Prentice Hall PTR, 1996

Based on sound economic and finance principles, the primary goal of this market-leading text is to promote a greater understanding of how real estate financial markets work. The authors blend theory with practice applying the theoretical aspects of financial economics to explain how Real Estate financial institutions and markets have developed and evolved to their present state, and why they take the forms they do. The impact of major federal legislation that applies to real estate finance (especially residential) is also addressed.
